Junior Red Angus Association (JRA) Event Cancellation Policy

Overview

The Junior Red Angus Association (JRA) strives to provide high-quality, educational, and engaging experiences through its national programs and events. To ensure that each event operates smoothly and that funds are allocated appropriately, the following cancellation policy applies to all JRA events, including Round-Up and the SPARK Leadership Conference.

General Policy

- Registration fees are used to cover pre-planned expenses such as lodging, meals, educational materials, and facility reservations.
- Because these costs are incurred prior to the event, JRA must adhere to strict refund and billing procedures.

Round-Up

- Participant accounts will be billed following the Round-Up registration deadline.
- No refunds will be issued after this billing date.
- Cancellations received after the registration deadline or failure to attend the event will not entitle you to a refund.

SPARK Leadership Conference

- Participant accounts will be billed following the SPARK acceptance deadline.
- No refunds will be issued after this billing date.
- Cancellations made after the acceptance deadline or failure to attend the event will not entitle you to a refund.

Failure to Attend

- Failure to attend a JRA event does not exempt a participant from financial responsibility.
- No refunds or credits will be issued for “no-shows,” regardless of reason.

Acknowledgment

By completing event registration, participants (or their parents/guardians, if under 18) acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.
